

Collaborative Groups Working Model

Every work group has a unique working dynamic, based upon the expectations and assumptions of each member of the group or team. Clarifying what they are and deciding how your group will work together will increase both the efficiency and effectiveness of the group. Use this model to identify and agree on the how.

